Message from the President

Welcome beautiful Autumn – may you last until Christmas or at least Thanksgiving. We have a couple exhibits coming up. Since our show at Massillon’s Studio M is simultaneous with the “big” Stark County show there, we will have a lot of people coming through ours as well especially since there will be one big reception for both shows. I urge all of you try not to show anything you have shown recently and to pull out all the stops and show the world what we’ve got! Our nominating committee has been recruiting your new board for 2016/2017 with great success. However, new committee chairpeople and committee members will be needed so please consider the opportunity to help our organization should you be called upon. As I have previously stated – the more people willing to take on small jobs means no job will require too much time for any one person and also give some who’ve been involved many years a much needed break.

Judi Longacre, President

Exhibit Opportunity

Salem City Arts is inviting artist in northeast Ohio and western Pa to participate in our first annual State of Art Gallery Popup in downtown Salem.

The show will run Sept 25-27. Opening reception, with Jazz band and refreshments, Sept 25.

Info about show and online entry at www.salemcityarts.com. Please share this info with any other artists you think would be interested. We have a large vacant storefront to fill with art!!

Contact me with questions or concerns about the show or online entry. K. Hill

Member Update

Not only has Nancy Stewart-Matin been accepted in Watercolor 2015, but she is also included in the travel show, which will be seen thru Ohio for the next year. She has also received word that she has won an award. Kudos!

New Gallery

The Nimishillen-Louisville Historical Society has opened an Art Gallery at 120 E. Main St. almost at the square. It's a nice large space with top of the line hanging system. There are looking for and scheduling artists of all kinds to show there. I found no number on line but I will try to let you know when I do have one.

Member Update

Carolyn Jacob has had 4 pieces selected by Tom Wachunas for his VISTA BOTANICA exhibition in September. Artist reception is Wednesday, Sept. 16 at 5:30 P.M. in the University Center, Kent Stark.

Committee Changes

And yes, we have two new members who have answered the call. My thanks to Anna Rather who will help manage our Facebook pages along with others. And thanks to Brandy Breslin who has agreed to take over our newsletter. So in the future, please let her know when you have news to be included, but continue to send me (Judi) anything you need e-blasted until Brandy gets her contact list set up.
