Congratulations to three CAL members who are accepted into the Ohio Watercolor Society 2023 Exhibition: Peter Castillo, Lori Perry, and Nancy Stewart Matin. The show runs from July 9 through August 13, at the Mansfield Art Center (700 Marion Ave. Mansfield, OH)

Congratulations to these CAL members who are accepted into the May Show at the Little Art Gallery: Bill Barron, Todd Bergert (Honorable Mention), Bruce Humbert, Tom Kilpatrick, Marjorie Lutes, Lori Perry, Gail Wetherell Sack, Dean Wallace, Pat Waltz (Best of Show), and Christine Williams.

Peter Castillo My painting "Turmoil" was accepted in the Ohio Watercolor Society - Watercolor Ohio 2023 Exhibition. The painting is a semi-abstract portrait that came out of my reaction to the COVID-19 pandemic and the U.S. social unrest of 2021.

Bruce Humbert - I was accepted for May show with my pencil drawing of "Venice street". Working on a painting of the same scene currently. Heading to Budapest and Prague in May in search of more material to paint.

Gail Wetherell Sack - Night-Blooming Cereus accepted into May Show

Christine Williams - I was accepted in the May show! A watercolor titled "Swirling In Between." That's how my life is! Getting yard, garden ready for spring plantings.. a few vegetables, herbs and flowers. We recently returned from Virginia visiting friends and neighbors, and have a few trips planned for the summer months. I am hoping to take in a few art galleries and botanical gardens while on these travel adventures!

Priscilla Roggenkamp - I have several of my textile pieces in this exhibition in Columbus. It starts April 29 and goes through July. I'm waiting to hear from the Mansfield Art Center for their May show.

Lori Perry - The Ultimate Artist's Nightmare

I was delighted to learn that I'll be joining many other CAL artists in the May Show at the Little Art Gallery. The most fun thing about my painting is that I did it for one of the CAL challenges (animals). I've had an extremely busy month, including an unexpected return to teaching at Walsh University after the sudden, sad passing of Diane Belfiglio, a well-known local artist and professor of art. I took over her painting class so students could finish the semester. That, plus other commitments, caused me to put off applying for the May Show until the last day. After photographing the entries in my studio, I downloaded the images and hit the "send" button. Imagine my dismay when the message failed to send, and my router indicated no Internet connection. It was OK one minute earlier. We live in the country and have broadband wi-fi, which sometimes comes and goes. Waiting a while, it looked like the wi-fi was going to be out for the night (it was). It was too late to go to the library. Panicking, I thought, "I'll call Irene!" That's something I did frequently during my CAL presidency. Fortunately, I was able to text the photo files to her, and she put her movie on hold and did her magic downloading to her computer and forwarding to the Little Art Gallery. I was probably the last entry received - it was getting late. Thanks, Irene, I owe you big time for a monumental favor that allowed "our" entry to make it on time. Perhaps I've learned a lesson.

Tom Kilpatrick - I was thrilled when I received news that my "Chrome Lady" was accepted into the "May Show" at the Little Art Gallery. This is my first juried acceptance.

In other news; since offering to paint pet/animal portraits, I have finished 5 commissions with several more on the horizon.

Life is good.

Carolyn Jacob - I've been VERY busy! Several of my photographs are currently on exhibit at the Louisville Art & History Gallery "AHH" photo show. I am also writing anthems for church choirs and "Let The Little Children Come Unto Me" will be performed at St. Stephen Martyr Lutheran Church in Canton on Mother's Day! My anthems are being posted as they are completed on YouTube at <http://www.youtube.com/@carolynjacob7337> I am also the Publicity Chair and photographer for the Canton Woman's Club, saving memories of their programs and special events for social media outreach on the CWC's Facebook page: Canton.Woman's Club - Ohio Check them out!

Irene Tobias Rodriguez - In march I spent a week in Hawaii with my niece. A cousin, who lives in Honolulu, was our personal tour guide. We had a wonderful time looking at scenery, birds, and flowers. We visited Pearl Harbor and climbed Diamond Head volcano/crater, and much more. I took many, many pictures, some worthy of being reference photos for future artwork.

My studio is being taken over by seedlings that are growing for my garden. (Just barely enough room left to create artwork.)

We lost a tree in the backyard from the strong winds a few weeks ago.

CMA, CAL Wall

May: Jennifer McCall

Jennifer's artistic journey started with photography in high school, then shifted from fine art to commercial art in college. She built a career in advertising and creative services. Over ten years ago, she started tinkering with assemblage art to refuel her creative soul.

Using mainly discarded items, Jennifer creates thought-provoking art inspired by life's realities and pressures. Her work encourages the viewer to ponder the elements and visuals, so they may recognize their own life experiences within the art.

CMA's spring exhibitions focus on family, and Jennifer's CONNECTIONS is a perfect companion exhibition.

Family and relational dynamics are at the heart of each piece in the collection.

Enjoy the exploration of self-discovery.

June: William Barron

I was born and raised in Canton, Ohio.. graduating from McKinley High, Cornell University with a BA , and an MBA from Wharton Graduate School. I came back to Canton and I married, and have three wonderful children . Pam and I now have 5 children, 7 grand children and 3 great grandchildren! My past business career of 45 years included all the usual community and charity work as well as owning and managing 2 businesses.

In 2015 - feeling the need to do something different in retirement, I took a drawing class at Massillon Museum. With the help of my teacher, Pat Ripple, I began to paint.

CURRENT EXHIBITS

FINDING HOME: FOUR ARTISTS' JOURNEYS

(MAY 2, 2023- JULY 23, 2023)

Exhibit features Compelling visual memoirs inspired by personal journeys through time and place. Master illustrators bring the immigration experience to life in images and words that give voice to the complex emotional realities of traveling to America, and of adapting to a new world thousands of miles away from where their stories began.

More than one hundred-fifty original drawings, paintings, linoleum block prints, and digital mixed media works by artists Frances Jetter, David Macaulay, James McMullan, and Yuyi Morales draw upon memories and family narratives, and on historical research that establishes meaningful contexts for their work.

MADE HOME

(MAY 2, 2023- JULY 23, 2023)

Rosa Leff's handcut paper pieces Each of Leff's papercuts is cut by hand from a single sheet of paper using a knife. Her cityscapes are based on photos she's taken in her neighborhood and all over the world. While Leff is best known for her ability to capture thin tangles of powerlines and intricate brickwork, she also enjoys experimenting with novel media such as paper plates and paper towels. Leff delights in bringing a modern, urban perspective to a traditional folk medium.

BORDERLESS: ARTIST MIGRATION FROM THE CMA COLLECTION

(MAY 2, 2023 - JULY 23, 2023)

Stories of first and second generation American artists who crossed borders to get here. Through hard work and sacrifice they adapted to new surroundings, altered the course of American art, and left a legacy unrestricted by borders.

See how the global movement of people through migration, immigration, and displacement mobilized artists from all over to reimagine ideas of home and place, all of which shaped the art of a period. Discover the stories and journeys of so many artists who have exemplified what it means to be Borderless.

Artists in the exhibit include Maija Grotell, Jimmy Ernst, Julian Stanczak, and more.
