Notes from the CAL President

Tom Kilpatrick

Dear CAL Artists,

We all hope you are as excited about our coming events as we are. As an old friend of mine once said "we've been busier than a one-armed paper hanger" (especially Irene)

Our Visions show is now underway - congratulations to our award winners (please check the news letter for results). What a great showing by our many talented artists. We at CAL can all hold our heads-up high. Please try to attend the reception at CMA this Friday May 6th from 5 - 7pm and then at our regular meeting on May 18th our very own docent, Sharon Mazgai, will lead us through the exhibit. In addition the Main St. Art Spot show in Minerva has also started and has their reception Friday May 13th from 1 - 6 pm. Your attendance there would be very welcome as well.

Our bus trip to the Butler Institute still has some vacancies. If you're interested in joining us at this very nice museum please contact Lori Perry for details.

You may have noticed my picture above with a cubistic person eating an ice cream cone. On a recent trip to St.Petersburg/Clearwater I had the double bonus of going to the Salvador Dali Museum to see a Picasso show. Two of my all time favorite artists in one place. What a great day I had. Picasso actually made me appreciate Dali even more. I'll be happy to explain that to anyone interested.

The Louisville- Nimishillon Historical Society (AHH Gallery) is looking for artists of all media who would like to participate in outdoor demos on 2nd Fridays this summer. I'll be helping out and I just heard that there will probably be a small monetary compensation to those willing to help. You can call Ron Derry at 330 705 8347 or myself at 330 807 9486.

That's all for now so enjoy the warmer weather and keep those creative juices flowing.

May - Lynda Rimke

Art has always taken on some form throughout Lynda's life, from early award winning creations with poster paint in elementary school, through a degree in fine art at Kent State University, where her direct painting methods were instilled by Joseph O'Sickey.

During a twenty-year painting hiatus, Lynda pursued graphic design and painted with plants in her garden creations. Drawing remained Lynda's primary concern, because excellent drawing and good composition are fundamental requirements for painting.

She began seriously painting again and fell in love with watercolor in 2004, a love that has remained. She has added pastel, and enjoys the challenge of watercolor and pastel in mixed media, and will occasionally branch out to explore oil or acrylic on canvas.

Lynda enjoys painting portraits, the human figure, and landscapes "en plein air" (on location) capturing shifting light and atmosphere.

Lynda surmises "As the digital design world grows more and more complicated, I long for the simplicity of paper

HOLY COW!

I was accepted into the Ohio Watercolor Society 2022 show.

The judge is an abstract artist, my painting is an illustration from the Algonquin Mill Festival. Go figure!

They had an extra "t" in my email address, and also the wrong phone number on their listing. If Suni hadn't sent a text to congratulate me, I would have never known. Looks like Ted Lawson is the only other person from Canton who was accepted. Out of 244 entries from 150 artists, 60 were chosen. I'd like to give the judge a big hug!!!!

League News

Tom Kilpatrick -

It has been approximately 55 years since I painted a crucifixion scene so I thought it's time to do another. Using a pallet knife to help the affect, I wanted this to be particularly brutal to provoke thought and emphasize all Jesus had suffered for us. I consequently call it "THIS' for Us". This was used extensively by the church throughout the Easter season.

On a more cheerful note, I sold another painting.

Peace be with you all!

Irene Tobias Rodriguez Recent artwork in anticipation of summer, an art quilt and a watercolor

Cheryl Eul -

I have an exhibit on June 24-25th at Healthy Heart, at 2354 S. Union Ave., Alliance, Ohio 44601.

My son, Brent, who had a very serious accident in the Philippines while on a mission. He is home now in Hawaii and on temp disability and unable to use his right arm. I've been praying 24/7 for him to heal because he has a deployment to Africa at the end of June. It's in God's hands.
